If God's People will pray...

A woman from Fiji working in Dubai visited JourneyAnswers.com website and asked prayer for her son. He was a prisoner in Fiji. She couldn't visit him and she was unable to even get a Bible to him. Her son did not want the usual glossy magazines that others had in his prison. He wanted to study the Bible! Her request went to our Global University National Director in India. He got in touch with a missionary working in Fiji. Her son now has a relationship with Christ and a Bible in his hand! At last report, he was using Global's discipleship courses to lead a Bible study in the prison. His mother's prayers were answered.

As we start our next furlough, God has been reminding us of the victories that He performed for us last furlough.

His guidance helped us to raise almost $1,500.00 per month and brought our account back into black! During that furlough, we told our partners that if God's people would pray, He would do the work!

The economy this time is different, but our God and His economy are the same! Would you stand with us in prayer for this furlough? We do not have our budget yet, but it appears as if we will have about the same amount to raise this time around.

As prayer support for our ministry, you share in the victories of both of these prayer requests: God answered the prayers of the prisoner's mother and you will share in the victory that God will bring during our furlough.

If God's people will pray,
He will do the work!

Phillip, Stephen and Hope's Corner

Hello, Captain Obvious here to deliver the news from the smaller people of the Kovach Family! (not really, it's just me Stephen) First of all, Phillip's a Senior in high school! After he graduates, he plans to go to Evangel University, and later on, become a naval chaplain! And Stephen (that's me! :) is now in 7th grade at Carver Middle School, and he wants to design Roller Coasters for Disney! Hope is now in 1st grade in elementary school. Well, I have to go explain something obvious, talk to you later!
