Pakistan, China and Malawi

Our newest language on GlobalREACH.org is Urdu, the national language of Pakistan and over 60 million speakers worldwide! Urdu has been one of our most requested languages but finding a translator has been difficult. Recently, God provided a translator for us! Our translators said, "We are so thankful to GlobalREACH.Org for having a Urdu Version for Pakistani Church (Kalisia) locally and around the world. We hope and believe that more and more Christian around the World . . . grow spiritually by studying this GlobalREACH.Org Urdu Version Website." Please pray that God would reach Urdu-speaking people all over the world!

Malawi Television Station

The Malawi Assemblies of God recently received a TV station license for the second station in the capital city. Since we are the only career missionaries with TV station engineering experience, we will be advising them in the various issues concerning construction. Travel may be occurring this fall. Please be praying for God's wisdom, guidance and provision for this incredible opportunity to use television to change a nation!

Phillip, Stephen and Hope's Corner

Summer is here in the Kovach house. While it's a fairly mild summer compared to last year, we've still got a lot going on. Stephen wrapped his last year of middle school at Carver. He got to be a drummer boy in his class reenactment of Picket's Charge and he absolutely loved it. Hope is doing fantastic with her ice skating. She just finished level 5 of her basic classes and skated her first solo performance! You can watch it and Stephen's class reenactment at <http://youtube.fredcrystal.com>. I just released my first soundtrack album online. It contains the music that I wrote for one of the campus films this year. You can find links to listen to my music at: <http://www.phillkovach.webs.com/anodynesoundtrack.htm>

Have a great summer!
