The Little Drummer Boy

It seems as if the stores start setting up for Christmas earlier each year! But I have to say come Thanksgiving week, we get excited to know that we will be decorating our home to get ready for our favorite holiday of the year-Christmas!

After watching the Little Drummer Boy (Veggie Tales style) my mind began to think about the words of the song...especially towards the end of the last verse: I played my drum for Him Pa rum pum pum pum, I played my best for him Pa rum pum pum pum.

How many times do we give our BEST to him?

Do we complain about the wait in line at the store? Do we complain about not finding a close parking spot at the mall? Do we complain about having to volunteer at the church when they need extra help? Do we complain about the homeless people around the city?

During this Christmas season and through out the coming year, lets keep in mind exactly why the baby came on that night so long ago: To come and seek and save that which was lost! That would be me, you and all of those that we see around us at the stores, on the street corners, huddled in a corner somewhere trying to stay warm.

The little drummer boy came to the manger to give the baby Jesus all that he had! His gift was a song. What is your gift to Jesus? Is it serving at church? Is it giving to those in need? Is it feeding meals to the homeless? Is it purchasing a gift for a family in need?

During this Christmas season, take a minute and ask your self what can you give as your gift!

May this Christmas and the coming year be filled with the richest of blessings!

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Kovach Praise and Prayer

† Praise God for two new languages on <http://www.GlobalREACH.org> ! Our newest languages are Arabic and American Sign Language.

† We thank God that GlobalREACH.org survived a recent series of Internet attacks with no loss of data!

† Please pray for God to continue to supply our ministry budget. We still need about 5% of our monthly budget and 65% of our cash budget. We praise God for His continued provision every month via special offerings as we work on the field!

How You Can Help

Phillip, Stephen and Hope's Corner

Hello, Stephen here again with the Kids Corner, and Hope and I are anticipating the 22nd of December, the day we get out of school for Christmas Break! As soon as Hope gets home from school, we load up the car and head off on the 16 hour trip to our Grandparents house in South Carolina. But until then, a lot is going on at the Kovach House, Hope has an Ice Skating Duet and Recital, Phillip is marching in the Springfield Christmas Parade, as well as a local amusement park's Christmas Parade, and I am playing with the school band at the Christmas Assembly, and we have a concert on the 13th of December. Then in January, there is my birthday! Well that pretty much wraps it up!

Have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!
