What is Important in Your Life?

This year has been one of reflection for our family. Having a family member fighting an illness where there is no earthly cure makes you stop and think what is important in life?

Is it the job? Is it having the best car? Is it having the best house? Is it having the best clothes? Is it having the most money?

As we are approaching this Christmas season, I am taking more time in my life to determine: in the scheme of things will this really matter?

What really matters, in my opinion is this : And in the same region there were shepherds out in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And an angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were filled with fear. And the angel said to them, "Fear not, for behold, I bring you good news of a great joy that will be for all the people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among those with whom he is pleased!"

As you go through this Christmas season ask yourself: What is important in my life?

May the most important thing in life always be Jesus! Because you are the most important thing to HIM!

Merry Christmas and May your New Year be richly blessed!

Phillip, Stephen and Hope's Corner

Hi! This is Stephen this newsletter. Lots has happened. For one thing, we went to go see Santa a couple of days ago at Bass Pro Shops. While we were there, we took some pictures.

Phillip has finished marching band season, and has started Winter Drumline and Jazz Band.

I will be turning twelve years old on my first band concert on January 14 and I'll be playing percussion!

Hope is starting to read and is really enjoying school.

We hope that you have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!
