Open Windows in Kazakhstan

We are working with a new project for Global University in Kazakhstan called Central Asia Theological Institute (CATI). Kazakhstan is a hub for Central Asian countries and people. It is an Open Window to historically closed people groups and countries.

The CATI project will disciple students in Kazakhstan and surrounding countries including Russia, Uzbekistan, and Kyrgyzstan. Our role will be to support the use of various media technologies that present our materials in the languages that CATI students use.

We appreciate your prayers for our translators, the students who will be taking CATI courses and the people they will reach for Jesus. Please also pray for us and the staff of Global University as we Open Windows in Central Asia through the Central Asia Theological Institute.

The India College of Ministry has experienced tremendous growth over the last 12 months. With tens of thousands of students, the demand for curriculum in their heart language is great. If you are able to help with translation or printing costs, you may give to our Online Bible School Fund at: icom.fredcrystal.com or send to the address on the right.

God's Victories through the Prayers of His People!

Stephen and Hope's Corner

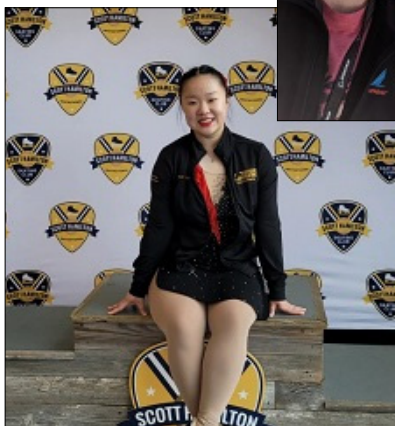

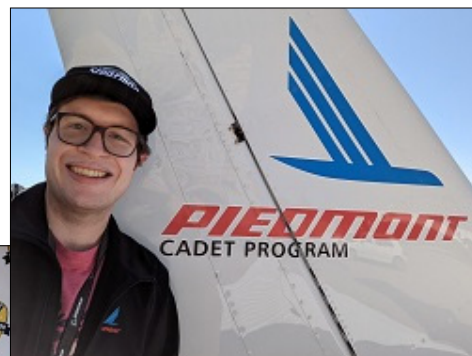

Happy Fall ya'll!!!

As we enter into the fall Stephen has started his classes and is continuing to work as a flight instructor. He has officially passed 1,100 hours of flight time now he has about 400 hours before he can fly commercially for a regional airline.

I am continuing to skate and just competed at the Scott Hamilton Invitational. And getting ready to test my Junior Freeskate (second to last test).

Exciting news for Phill and Katie they are expecting baby Kovach in February!!!

Well that's about it, hoping and excited to talk to you guy soon!
