What Gift are You Looking for This Christmas?

I remember, as a little girl, the arrival of the Sears Wishbook! My sister and I would go through every page with our pens in hand circling every thing we thought we had to have to make Christmas perfect!

We had to have just the right doll, or just the right toy. That would be what made Christmas perfect!

Through the years, my wish list has changed! I no longer want the coolest gadget that happens to be out, I don't new jewelry to make it the best Christmas.

What makes the best Christmas for me to be able to spend time with my family and friends. Making memories with them means more than something that I will have to dust, wash, clean.

I have noticed with our children, that they remember more the things we have done with them more than the things we have gotten for them.

This Christmas we are trying something new! We aren't planning to purchase many things as gifts. What we are giving this year is the gift of time! That is becoming more and more precious as the years go by. We want to have experiences together, make memories together and give the gift of time!

One thing that I know is that same gift that we are planning to give to our family and friends, God deserves it also!

God enjoys time with you! In the rush of the season, find a quiet place and spend time with God thanking Him for the gift He gave so long ago! Jesus! The Greatest Gift of All!

From our house to yours, Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Phillip, Stephen and Hope's Corner

Hello everybody, it's your favorite figure skater, Hope! This time I'm writing the Christmas Kids Corner.

Stephen just earned his CFII as a Flight Instructor. It allows him to teach people for three licenses instead of just two. He is working on his Bachelor's Degree and he is doing great in school!

Did you notice there's another girl in the picture? She is Phill's girl-friend, Katie, and we plan to keep her forever! Phill's continuing to work on his music projects. You can listen to his playlist at <http://playlist.fredcrystal.com>

I recently completed my last test for Moves in the Field in Figure Skating and earned the title of Gold Medalist in U.S. Figure Skating! I have a Christmas show coming up and I am continuing to work on my programs for next season.

We wish you a wonderful Christmas and a Happy New Year from the Kovach kids!
