Global University's First Worldview Book to Go Online

Global University just released the first book in its Worldview series! This series will help people of various modern religions and philosophies to discover Jesus and find out what it means to be a Christian!

The first book in the Worldview series is entitled The Greatest Miracle and it is geared to reach out to Roman Catholics. Joe Szabo, Vice President of Global University's Center for Evangelism and Discipleship explains: "Most Roman Catholics feel that entrance into heaven is earned through good works and observance of church traditions. The Greatest Miracle points out the biblical truth that salvation is actually a free gift from God given through faith in Jesus Christ." The Greatest Miracle does this by presenting God's Good News in a non-offensive and respectful way.

We have also been working to place this course online to make it available free of charge. Szabo pointed out that people are spending more time on the Internet and much of that time is spent reading. "Our goal is that many thousands of Catholics come to experience the greatest miracle, a personal relationship with Christ leading to eternal salvation."

Please be praying for God's anointing on The Greatest Miracle to reach souls. The Greatest Miracle will be translated into Spanish and French and placed onto GlobalReach.org soon! Meanwhile, you may preview the English language version on our website at <http://TheGreatestMiracle.fredcrystal.com/>

- ☛ Pray for our Internet Development Team as they renovate GlobalReach.org to place these courses online. We have been working closely with both teams for the GlobalReach.org Languages Project.

Phillip, Stephen, and Hope's Corner

Well this school year is rushing to a close and this week has been chocked full of finals and whatnot. Stephen went on a trip to the Laura Ingalls Wilder House in Mansfield. Hope has been talking up a storm. She is really bonding with us well. She's so excited about turning three next month. We are coming up on two years of having Hope in our family. Me and some of my friends are putting together a "web-i-sode" (video series on the internet) that's premiering soon. God is really doing amazing things here. I received an e-mail a while back from one of my friends that had Leukemia saying that she is totally Cancer-free. Talk to Ya'll later, Phillip, Stephen & Hope

PS: This is mom...I wanted to brag a little on my boys. June 1st, Phillip earned his Silver Medal of Achievement and Stephen earned his Gold Falcon, which is the highest award that a 3rd grade Royal Ranger can earn. Phillip is on track to have his Gold Medal next Summer! We are very proud of our Ranger boys!
